Renier Construction Hires Brian Reynolds as Project Executive and Director of Pre-Construction Services

COLUMBUS, Ohio – January 9, 2019 – Renier Construction is pleased to announce its recent hire of Brian Reynolds, who joins the Renier team as Project Executive and Director of Pre-Construction Services working in the Columbus office headquarters. Reynolds' focus will be on overseeing the development of design and construction documents, serving as a Project Executive (key contact) for Renier clients as well as maintaining and expanding services offered by Renier throughout the design-build construction process.

"Brian has worked hand-in-hand with Renier for more than 12 years and has become an integral part of our design and construction team. He has been a member of the Renier family for quite a while, we're excited to formally welcome him to the family as a key player on our team," says Bill Heifner, Founder and President of Renier Construction

Prior to joining Renier, Reynolds worked for Architectural Alliance on numerous projects for such clients as Germain Jaguar Land Rover of Easton, Germain Lexus of Easton Service Center, Lexus of Dayton, Buckeye Toyota, Hugh White Honda, Georgesville Nissan, Mountaineer Automotive Ford Lincoln, Germain Toyota of Columbus, Germain Toyota of Sarasota, Mark Porter Chevrolet Buick GMC, Byers Chevrolet of Grove City and Auto Assets.

"His experience and track record speak for itself. He brings a unique perspective that will be mutually beneficial for both of our organizations, and we're pleased we will still have the opportunity to work with him," says John Oney, CEO of Architectural Alliance.

Reynolds graduated from The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. He currently resides in Upper Arlington, Ohio, with his wife and two teenage children.
